MOCHABITES

Not long after we fell in love and married, we learned that we both enjoyed the idea chocolate covered coffee beans but extremely disliked chewing on whole bean coffee. The kitchen of our home was turned into an experimentation lab to discover a more convenient and unique way to mix chocolate and coffee with the goal of removing the bean! The Bean was removed and MochaBites was born!

Today we continue to be directly involved in the making of MochaBites in our own production facility, all while investing in the training of our little third generation chocolatier!

OUR VALUES

Quality

Sourcing of the best ingredients is our secret to produce high quality products that people love and will come back for more.

Care

Creating not only a safe, quality driven work environment for our team members but providing an upbeat and fun atmosphere as well. After all, we work in a chocolate factory!

Responsibility

As a result of our ongoing relationship with Cares of Washington, we provide employment for adults with disabilities.
